To,

All AICTE approved Universities / Colleges / Institutions

Construction Industry Development Council (CIDC), the apex body representing construction Industry was established by the Planning Commission (now NITI Ayog) Government of India jointly with the construction industry, to help promote efficient methods, technology, management and skill development in order to develop and implement world class projects within least time and at least cost. CIDC has undertaken an extensive program for Internships of Engineering students. The details about CIDC are available at www.cidc.in.

AICTE, in association with CIDC, has agreed to promote Internships with industrial houses and government / semi-government organisations as also to undertake other programs to help Engineering Colleges to meet their internship obligations in line with the Internship Policy of AICTE. CIDC is collaborating with various other Professional organisations and a major Engineering Journal CE&CR (<https://cecr.in>)

You may get in touch with CIDC for the internship needs of your students. For further details please contact:
