TELANGANA RISING

Ref: NAC/Trg/CIDC/2026-27 / 896 dated 16.11.2026

From:	To:
Sri M Srinivasa Reddy, B.Tech., Director General, National Academy of Construction NAC Campus, Kothaguda, Hyderabad – 500 084 TS	The Chairman Construction Industry Development Council (CIDC), 801, Hemkunt Chambers, 89, Nehru Place, New Delhi - 110 019

Sir,

Sub: NAC - CIDC - Clarification regarding observations on certain irregularities in the registration process and proposed collaboration with ISDA by NAC, Andhra Pradesh - Reg.

Ref: Your letter No. CIDC/NAC/2026, dated 02.11.2026, addressed to the Hon'ble Chief Minister and Chairman, NAC, Telangana.

Greetings from the National Academy of Construction, Hyderabad!

With reference to the letter cited above, addressed to the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Telangana, who is also the Chairman of NAC, Telangana, regarding certain alleged irregularities in the registration process, skill assessment and certification of construction workers through National Academy of Construction, AP and Infrastructure Skill Development Academy (ISDA), the following clarification is submitted for your kind consideration.

1. Regarding the registration form and proposed collaboration with ISDA:

It is observed that the registration form referred to in your letter bears the heading "National Academy of Construction, AP" and pertains to Skill Upgradation and Skill Assessment of Construction Workers. The form also carries the NAC logo along with the logo of ISDA.

In this regard, it is clarified that NAC, Telangana, has neither entered into any collaboration or agreement with ISDA nor authorized ISDA to undertake any skill assessment, testing or certification activity on its behalf. The registration form and the activities referred to in your representation pertain to NAC, Andhra Pradesh, and are not connected with the administration or activities of NAC, Telangana.

2. Administrative status of NAC after the State bifurcation:

It is pertinent to bring to your notice that, consequent to the bifurcation of the erstwhile State of Andhra Pradesh under the Andhra Pradesh Reorganization Act, 2014, the employees, training centers and related administrative arrangements of NAC were allocated between the two successor States in accordance with the applicable bifurcation arrangements.

Accordingly, the operations of NAC in Andhra Pradesh and Telangana have been functioning independently under their respective State Governments and managements, with the Hon'ble Chief Minister of the respective State Government as Chairman of NAC with effect from 02.06.2014.

3. Institutional identity and administrative autonomy:

While the operations of the Academy have been geographically and administratively bifurcated between the two successor States. Both the State managements are independently undertaking their respective training programmes, initiatives, collaborations, partnerships and agreements with various organisations, in accordance with their respective administrative requirements and the objectives of the Academy.

Therefore, any decision, agreement, collaboration or activity undertaken by "NAC, Andhra Pradesh", shall fall within the purview of its respective management and cannot be attributed to NAC, Telangana, in the absence of any involvement or authorisation by the later.

4. Regarding the observations and representation made to the Telangana Government:

In view of the above facts, "it is clarified that the issues raised in your representation concerning the registration form, collection of fees, skill assessment and certification through ISDA relate to the activities of NAC, Andhra Pradesh".

Accordingly, you are requested to kindly withdraw or suitably rectify the correspondence addressed to the Hon'ble Chief Minister of Telangana and Chairman of NAC, Telangana, the Hon'ble Minister for Roads & Buildings, Government of Telangana, who is also the Vice-Chairman of NAC, Telangana, and other officials, insofar as the same concerns the activities of NAC, Andhra Pradesh and does not pertain to NAC, Telangana.

Any further correspondence, clarification or representation concerning the proposed collaboration with ISDA or the related activities may appropriately be addressed directly to the management of NAC, Andhra Pradesh, for examination and necessary action.

We trust that the above clarification establishes the factual and administrative position of NAC in the two successor States. We request you to kindly take note of the same and extend your cooperation in maintaining the institutional reputation and credibility of the National Academy of Construction, Telangana.

Thanking You,

National Academy of Construction ★ Hyderabad

Yours faithfully,

Director General, NAC
